The Stonewall Jackson case, the first seizure by the Sumter and the first trips of the blockade runners are the principal cases of investigation.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The Belfast Riots—Terrible Carnage—Great Destruction of Property.

LONDON, August 20, 3 30 P M.—Several efforts were made during the day to fire buildings and some parties were caught in the act. In every street are evidences of the terrible character of the conflict that has been raging for the past few days. The government of the city is temporarily vested in four magistrates, with ample military resources.

NEW YORK, August 20.—A London special says that the riots in Belfast continue with unabated fury, and the city is at the mercy of a bloodthirsty mob. Martial law is declared. There are fears of a repetition of the terrible scene of 1866. All places of business are closed. At noon a regular panic prevailed and many respectable people have left the city. At this writing the hospital in St Patrick street is filled with wounded and dying and the screams are heartrending. Several women have been shot. Troops can do nothing without the sanction of the Mayor who was at length compelled to order the military to engage the rioters. About a dozen persons were shot at Boyne Bridge, so called, near the railway station.

LONDON, August 20.—Later.—Despite the action of the authorities who, owing to their utter helplessness and inefficiency were obliged to surrender control of the city into the hands of the military, the rioters are vigorously carrying out their desperate deeds of blood and plunder. Orangemen were charged this morning with fixed bayonets up Carrick Hill, but soon after meeting an opposing force of Catholics on Old Lodge Road engaged them and fought over an hour with guns, paving stones and bludgeons. Many of the employes of the mill on the Antrim road have quitted Cork to join the rioters. There is no knowing where the matter will end. The riots of 1866 lasted three weeks. It seems that the commandant is determined to enforce order and accordingly intimates that every person found on the street will be treated as a rioter. The public houses were closed to-day. The soldiers effectually cleared the streets and rioters are now dodging around corners firing stray shots. Orangemen in bodies of three or four hundred issued from their head quarters at Sandy Row and rushed through the principal streets like demons firing in all directions. It is apprehended that they will attempt to demolish several Catholic institutions, and large reinforcements of constabulary are accordingly summoned.

Geneva Conference—Final Decision Expected

GENEVA, August 20.—Armand Dumesy, the celebrated French artist, has arrived at Geneva to paint the picture commemorative of the sitting of the Tribunal of Arbitration.

The final decision of the Court is expected in a few days.

From Rome.

ROME, August 20.—It is said that Archbishop DeMerode, Almoner of the Pope, has gone to Brussels to make arrangements with the Belgian Ministry for the reception of the Holy Father.

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, August 21.—John W. Forney of Pennsylvania, who arrived with the Scott party from Philadelphia last night, will speak on the political situation before he leaves California.

The real estate dealers publish a card in favor of the proposed railroad compromise and subsidy.

George W Fox publishes a card in answer to the statement of Arnold published in the Laramie ... concerning the alleged diamond discoveries in Arizona. He says that he never met Arnold in his life to his knowledge, certainly never traveled with him. A miner who also claims to be the original diamond discoverer says that Arnold was at White Pine at the time he says he was in Arizona, as he knows to a certainty, having had a quarrel with him about a mining claim, and he don't believe that he was ever in the diamond county. While the numerous original discoverers are denouncing each other as ... it looks the public at large are beginning to connect ... with them all, and diamond stock is below zero.

The stock market looks very sick and blue this morning. Many old operators are fearful that the bottom has not yet been touched by the Comstock stocks and that something very much like a panic is coming.

Work has been commenced on the Clay street and Russ and Hill railway, the required amount of subscription having been obtained. The question as to whether the road is to be broad or narrow gauge is not yet settled and the line will probably not be in running order within six months.

The death rate of Europe is nearly double what it is in the United States, averaging yearly about one out of every forty-three inhabitants, while here it is only one out of every eighty-one.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

EASTERN STATES

New York Politics

NEW YORK, August 21.—The Times says that Horatio Seymour and Sanford E Church positively refuse to allow their names to be used by Democrats or Liberals at the Convention in connection with the Governorship. It is believed that Aug Schell will be the strongest candidate.

Not for Greeley

HARRISBURG, August 21.—At the Republican State Convention held to-day D. H Ho... and H J Smith, prominent Republicans who were announced for Greeley, declared for Grant.

A Defaulter Decamps

NEW YORK, August 21.—George Kingsland, book keeper of the Hudson county National Bank, Jersey City, has decamped for Europe. He is a defaulter to the amount of $60 000. Cause: wine and women.

It is stated that Mario is about to visit the United States on a short professional tour.

Houard's Story of his Imprisonment

Dr Houard, who has returned from Spanish imprisonment, attributes his release to the efforts of American Press attacks, and returns his warmest thanks. He thinks Fish might have acted more promptly as he was an American citizen, and might have abbreviated or at least alleviated his sufferings. Houard will go to Washington and present his claim, which is a pretty round sum, including the loss of his medical business at Cienfuegos. The latter is valued at $30 000. He will return to Cuba in a few days. He was loaded with chains on the transport ship, lodged in the hold and when he wanted air had to go on deck dragging his chains behind. These actions and bad food gave him dysentery. The commandant of the prison at Cadiz was a brute and a thief. Some of the prisoners actually died from eating food other than regular fare for which the commandant charged double. No other prisoners were allowed to converse with Houard. No letters or papers were allowed to reach him while the filth and vermin were terrible. While Houard was sick, the commandant refused to allow his removal to a hospital, which was only secured by the efforts of the American consul.

Collapse of the Great Wheat Corner

CHICAGO, August 21.—The collapse of the great corner in wheat continues to be the absorbing topic of interest in commercial circles. No such day as yesterday has ever before been seen in the Chicago grain trade. The breaking of the corner brought down not only the originators of the scheme but hundreds of others.

Address on Education by a Japanese

PHILADELPHIA, August 21.—At a meeting of the State Association of Pennsylvania last evening Mr Mori, Japanese Minister, made an address strongly favoring the proposed system for educating the Japanese which had received such an impetus from this country. The address was delivered in good English, and was well received. He was elected an honorary member of the Association.

A Double Murder—The Murderer Lynched

CHICAGO, August 21.—Near Olney, Illinois, on Saturday Jeff White, a farmer, shot in cold blood and killed Henry Heultz, also a farmer, with whom he had had some difficulty. White rode to Olney, consulted a lawyer, surrendered to the Sheriff and was placed in jail. On Monday morning Heultz's wife, who was prostrated with grief, was prematurely confined and died that night. A party of two or three hundred broke into the jail, took White and hanged him to a tree in the court house yard.

The Turf.

SARATOGA, August 21.—A race of two and three fourths miles, to horses of all ages, was won by Harry Bassett by ten lengths over Maria Louise, under pull, in five and six.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Belfast Riots not Quelled—Vigilance Committee Proposed.

BELFAST, August 21.—The hopes of a restoration of quiet and a more peaceful state of affairs have not been realized. The condition shown by reports at headquarters is worse than ever. Last night the authorities were powerless against the depredations, although supported by an armed force of fully five thousand. School houses were destroyed and it was with the utmost difficulty some churches were preserved. Gross mismanagement of the authorities is suspected and disaffection is so great that respectable citizens intend to form a vigilance committee for the arrest and summary punishment of offenders.

LONDON, August 21.—A dispatch from Belfast last evening says the city is quiet, but the riot not entirely ended. Rioters captured by civic and military organizations were conveyed to jail under a strong escort of troops. No attempt was made toward rescue. Municipal buildings are strongly guarded and the streets are patrolled by cavalry. A dispatch from Lurgan says there are disorders there. A dispatch says during the rioting yesterday a policeman was killed and a number of other casualties occurred. The mob when not engaged in wrecking houses, assaulted and shamefully treated individuals, including Benjie, editor of the Northern Star, a Catholic journal. All schools and most mills are closed. Nine magistrates are now on duty. Although the streets were patrolled last evening by military, a crowd collected and excitement and rioting continued. Thirty rioters were arrested yesterday and lodged in prison. At midnight the city was comparatively quiet though occasionally shots were heard. It is reported that there were several personal encounters between rioters and special constables.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, August 21.—The stock market burst wide open this morning—a regular stand from under stampede occurring and nearly the entire list going down with a crash. The bears made the heaviest onslaught on Imperial, Empire and Eclipse and slaughtered them without mercy. It is alleged by many operators that the entire withdrawal of Sharon from the Senatorial contest in Nevada had much to do with the collapse. They say that while he was in the fight he was obliged to carry many operators, but now that he is out of the fight he has no object in doing it any longer and he is bound to make them pay for his failure. Whether there is any considerable amount of truth in this rumor or otherwise it is impossible for an outsider to say.

Thomas Craig, a young man convicted of highway robbery, was to-day sentenced to the Industrial School instead of the State Prison by Judge Blake of the Municipal Court.

The First National Land Company of Arizona, formed to operate in mineral and farming lands in Arizona and New Mexico with a capital of $10 000 000, was incorporated to-day.

In the case of Lewis C ... one of the Brotherton brothers, who was convicted of forgery and sentenced to State Prison and after spending eighteen months there was granted a new trial by the Supreme Court, Judge Blake, of the Municipal Court, to-day entered an order allowing him to give bail in the sum of $10,000 pending a new trial, which cannot take place before next term.

The sales of Washoe stocks this morning aggregated 10 195 shares, of which 1 580 were Imperial and 1 050 Empire, the tendency being steadily downward. At the evening Board there was a still further decline and everything went—the sales aggregating 12 238 shares, of which 1 50 were Imperial and 2 505 Meadow Valley. The bears appear to have the upper hand for the time and the bulls are out of the ring.

The Catholic Publication Company, with a capital of $20 000, was incorporated to-day.

The Executive Committee of the Committee of One Hundred had another meeting to-day and a bitter one. An acrimonious discussion took place.

Mr Wheeler replied at length to the remarks of Messrs Hayward and Pickering, made yesterday, and severely criticised the course of the ..., which he said had first advocated the Goat Island project and then denounced it.

Mr Pickering replied stating that he fully endorsed the action of the Bulletin from first to last. He said that the Bulletin when it believed the Central Pacific Railroad was acting in good faith had supported it, and when convinced that it was not, had opposed it. In both cases it was acting solely for the interests of San Francisco.

The final vote, which had been fixed for Thursday, was postponed until Friday.

Mr Hay proposed an amendment which should concede to the Central Pacific Railroad some rights at the foot of Fourth street in return for which they were to concede the same privileges in the Mission bay basin to other companies.

Mr Wheeler said that it was useless to discuss such an amendment as he had every reason to believe that the company would not accept it.

After some further debate the committee adjourned.

A stranger who arrived from Salt Lake last night and took a room at the Wisconsin Hotel, Pacific street, was found dead in his bed this evening. He was seen alive at noon, apparently in good health. He gave no name and no one knows who or what he was.

Platt's Hall is again filled this evening to hear Senator Nye of Nevada and James Lindley, Federal Assessor, speak for Grant and Wilson. There are no bonfires or fireworks but the audience is as large as the hall will admit.

Preparations for the Horticultural Exhibition are nearly completed. The building was lighted and thrown open to the members of the press this evening. The display will be very brilliant and attractive.

Colonel Thomas Scott starts for San Diego on the California on Friday. Scott states that the work on the Texas Pacific will not be delayed for anything now, and cars will run upon that line across the continent within five years at the farthest.

[It is understood that this affair grew out of some scandal in regard to Miller's wife, or at least that this was a pretext for the murderous act. The homicide was perpetrated in the most deliberate and cowardly manner—Miller shooting Smith in the back. Much excitement was caused by the affair, and Miller would have been lynched if the crowd could have reached him.—ED.]

Some 450 men are in the diggings, and provisions and goods of all kinds are selling low.

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS

The State Agricultural Fair of California will open on the 19th September. Forty thousand dollars will be distributed in cash premiums.

In a private letter to a friend in Washington, Wendell Phillips, writing from Boston under date of August 6, says: "I have already written for Grant as against Greeley, and shall take a more active part, for I feel what is at stake. Greeley is simply wax in the hands of traitors. How sad Sumner's act! I can not understand it—the gravest mistake of his life—a terrible fall."

The most singular theatrical success which has been won in London these many years has been reserved for an American. Miss Bateman has taken the city by storm in her new character of Medea. There is but one opinion: all the papers, all the critics, the pit, the galleries, the stalls, the dress circle, all agree, and all attest by crowding the Lyceum nightly that no such acting has been seen before by the present generation of play goers.

Mark Flannagan, a shoemaker of New York City, murdered his wife on the 15th inst. He had been long given to idleness and dissipation. The wife returned from work and found her husband drunk. Upon expostulating with him for his conduct he seized a shoemaker's knife and stabbed her five times, causing almost instant death. He was immediately arrested. The murdered woman leaves a family of eight children, the oldest only sixteen years of age.

Still they come. Fortune Snow lives away down in Tennessee, and he is one hundred and twenty two years old. At least he says so and nobody can dispute it. Fortune has a sprightly grandson of sixty five having been married over one hundred years ago. Remember the Revolutionary war! Ho! what's that? This venerable Snow was a vigorous youth of twenty five when it commenced. He shows no sign of melting and may last through many a summer yet. We are not informed on the tobacco question. If he uses the weed that accounts for his longevity. If he don't use it that accounts for it too.

Sewing machine agents in the Eastern States are getting to be as great pests as the life insurance agents and lightning rod men. We read of a farmer on the road between Charlton and Worcester, Mass, who having been terribly annoyed by drummers put up a sign: "No sewing machines wanted here. Got one." It was no use: the next drummer wanted to see the machine, and perhaps he'd hitch up a trade. So the farmer put up: "Got the smallpox here." That worked well for a while, but then came along a drummer, frightfully pitted with the smallpox, who smilingly said: "Seein' you've got it bad around here, they've put me on this route."

The Temperance Candidate

[From the Nation.]

A sad scandal has made its appearance in the Liberal Republican ranks. It is alleged—and, as far as we can learn, with truth—that Mr Gratz Brown, when attending Commencement at Yale College, in July, after making a foolish and ignorant speech at the alumni dinner, had the indiscretion to get very drunk and behave in a very disorderly manner at the hotel in the evening. Whereupon the Springfield Republican, which is an ardent friend of the Greeley movement, indignantly and honestly demands that Mr Brown withdraw from the ticket. Mr Brown however shows no sign of doing anything of the kind and we see no good reason from the Liberal Republican point of view why he should. It is true that on the surface his behavior seems odd for a "reform candidate" for the Vice Presidency, but if he withdrew it would greatly impede the course of the "beneficent revolution," because it would be an acknowledgment that he had done wrong in getting drunk, whereas on the theory on which this great movement has been started, the oftener he gets drunk the fitter he is for the place to which he aspires. If Greeley be just the man to represent the views of those who seek revenue reform and civil service reform and who are opposed to the coercive government of the South, as we are assured he is, then the man to ... the views of temperance men and of that large class of persons who desire to see decency and sobriety in high functions, and who were shocked by Andrew Johnson being fuddled on inauguration day, is, of course, a confirmed and noisy drunkard.

In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

THURSDAY MORNING AUGUST 22, 1872

A Party's Predicament

Nothing is more evident than that the adoption of a renegade Republican as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency has not been followed by the success which was anticipated. The novelty of the thing did indeed produce a temporary excitement among the crowd who rushed after the candidate of two Conventions much in the same way that they would scramble to get a sight of the two headed baby or some like monstrosity. But this excitement took away the judgment of no man of sense. It was ephemeral and necessarily so. Something besides novelty and burlesque is demanded to satisfy the sober judgment of the people. Greeley therefore was stronger immediately after his nomination than he is now or ever will be again. A contemporary well says: The controlling idea of the Democrats was that the novelty and boldness of their policy would carry everybody away by surprise. The people would be dumb-foundered and would rush pell mell after the figure of an old white coat and hat. But this expectation has been disappointed.

The disappointment is apparent. The Republican campaign is warming up in all parts of the country but the Greeley campaign has far less life and activity than it showed a month ago. In fact it is going down to zero. The organs have ceased to fabricate and print lists of names of "prominent Republicans" here and there, who are alleged to have come out for "Old Honesty." Meantime the movement for Louisville grows apace, and bids fair to draw into it all the honest and self-respecting elements of the party.

The truth is, as a contemporary observes, and as every person can see, "there is no love, admiration, or respect felt by the Democratic masses for the candidate so strangely foisted upon them. If there were it would be manifested. If he had done deeds to be remembered, they would be recounted. If he had uttered wise counsel, according to their views, his words would be quoted and held up to admiration. He has filled volumes of newspapers and written books, but where is the sentence or line that supplies the motto for a street banner?

The Democrats know this and feel it keenly. They are able to vociferate in a crowd about the wonderful effects which their policy is to produce, but take a Democrat singly into a corner to test his honest sentiments, and he does not attempt to conceal his mortification at the dilemma in which he finds himself. He throws off the mask. He acknowledges his distrust. He confesses to the fatal mistake into which his party has blundered. He confesses he has no hope.

Democracy in Oregon is a type of Democracy elsewhere. Now let the reader cast about him and see how Democrats of his acquaintance feel toward Greeley and how they view the political situation. Not one in ten has a willingness to vote for him. Ninety per cent of those who give him their suffrage will do it with extreme reluctance. All regret the necessity and not a few plumply refuse to recognize him as the Democratic candidate.

The Greeley movement wanes because it is based on frivolous and insufficient grounds, and because it is too grotesque in all its features to permit any one to respect it. The complaints and accusations against the Republican party, in which the so-called 'Liberal Republican" movement had its origin, were absurdly false and groundless. They had nothing that concerned the public, but were merely the personal animosities and resentments of certain individuals who believed themselves slighted or injured, and began to look for a way to obtain revenge. The Democratic party took up with these people put them in the lead and abjured their own principles. Hence the embarrassing attitude in which the coalition now stands before the country.

A Slander Answered

Frequently the Herald has made accusations against the integrity of the Postmaster General in the matter of the Chorpenning claim. That official has been denounced as a "swindler" for his agency in settling this claim, and, according to the Herald, was principal in one of the most corrupt jobs by which the Government was ever defrauded. Now be it known that when this matter was first broached, the Postmaster General demanded an investigation. The investigation was made by order of Congress, and a report was presented declaring that the Postmaster General "did not deviate from the discharge of his official duty in the settlement made, but strictly obeyed the law." This report was signed by Senator Kelly of Oregon and [illegible] Blair of Missouri.

Last month, ex-Gov Austin Blair of Michigan, who has become a 'Liberal' made a speech at Jackson, in which he attacked the Administration in divers ways. One feature of the attack was this accusation that Postmaster General Creswell had paid this Chorpenning claim corruptly and without authority of law. Mr Creswell immediately set out for Michigan to meet his accuser. Arrived at Jackson, he published an announcement that he would reply to Blair. A large crowd assembled, and Creswell opened his speech thus:

I have left my desk in the Post Office Department, and have traveled nearly 1,000 miles to meet and disprove the groundless charges of a man whom the Republican party of your State has raised from obscurity to some of the highest positions in its gift, to be repaid by treason and every conceivable act of treachery and meanness. Selecting some of his attacks, he has waited until days and nights of weary travel have separated us, and then opened his mouth and belched forth a mass of vituperation and slander as from a common sewer of vileness and corruption. I am here to-day to meet him as I meet all enemies face to face, and to make answer, full and complete, in the presence and hearing of the very people before whom he has seen proper to arraign me.

Mr Creswell then proceeded to answer the charges in detail. He gave a history of the whole case, read the act of Congress which required the claim to be settled, and quoted from the report of the Congressional Committee, signed by every member thereof including Senators Kelly and Blair showing that the Postmaster General had simply discharged his official duty in the action he had taken. He closed with these scathing remarks:

Thus I have answered Austin Blair not with slang and invective equal to his own but with fair argument based on incontrovertible facts. I have not yet replied to his declaration that I am a scoundrel by hurling back like language at him. I have taken a higher and more complete revenge. I have proved him to be a LIAR and a SLANDERER.

It would appear that the Postmaster General knows how to defend himself against the pack of howling slanderers who fill the air with lying breath, in the name of 'reform.'

The New York Times says that within six weeks its daily circulation has risen 11,500 and its weekly edition 32,000 copies.

Greeley's Pledges

The ex-rebels boast that Greeley is wholly devoted to their interests. General Hodge one of the candidates on the Greeley electoral ticket in Kentucky delivered a speech at Lexington a few days ago in which the following hopeful utterances were made:

Looking back upon the once shattered and fruitless hopes of the South I now see that the equal rights and sovereignty of States shall be restored and my comrades of the lost cause have not died in vain. This will be a victory for that for which they fought. Mr Greeley promised to do all he could if it find us when we get the majority in Congress. I object to Grant because he is a Republican because he is a member of that party which waged successfully the contest against my brethren of the South. I have heard it said by some that the Democratic party shall have no part with Mr Greeley in the contest but I feel that they will not be neglected. Not only will Greeley not forget who has helped him to his position but pledges—direct pledges—have been given us by him that we shall not be forgot on in case of success.

Nice prospect isn't it? The ex-rebels understand that the election of Greeley will be a victory for that for which they fought and they boast that they have pledges from Greeley to that effect. Now if the Oregon Herald would only hold up to public scorn the man who thinks it isn't prudent or safe to elect Greeley we should doubtless have peace.

'Zeb' Vance rendered forever infamous by his atrocities as rebel Governor of North Carolina during the war will be sent to the United States Senate from that State. This is a fruit of "liberal reform." An Eastern contemporary says: The Democrats have elected a majority of the Legislature thanks to an infamous apportionment, and they have secured the election of 'Zeb' Vance to the United States Senate. They have lost a State but no one can deny that they have obtained a worthy representative as a Senator. It seems a great deal to give for so little, but if the Democrats are contented we have no disposition to complain. Zeb Vance will be useful in the Senate as an awful example of the way in which most of the high places in the land would have been filled had not Greeley been defeated.

To-day (Thursday) an election will be held in West Virginia. The contest presents several curious features, the most prominent of which we touched upon in an article published a few days ago. The candidates for Governor are J N Camden, Greeley Democrat, and John J Jacob anti Greeley Democrat, who is supported by the Republicans. A direct vote is to be taken on a new Constitution. If the instrument is adopted it will be a Democratic triumph; if defeated it will be substantially a Republican victory. If Jacob be elected over Camden it will be a square Greeley defeat.

All over the Union Democrats are repudiating Greeley. Dispatches published here with show a formidable uprising against him in Georgia. On the 9th instant the Young Men's Democratic Club of Atlanta 1,200 strong held a meeting at which resolutions were adopted pledging eternal hostility to Greeley. In Virginia and other States the movement is equally notable. If Charles O'Conor is nominated he will probably receive a majority of the Democratic vote of the United States.

A telegram in the San Francisco Bulletin contradicts the report that A T Stewart supports Greeley. The great merchant declared at Saratoga last week that he would consider the election of Greeley a 'public calamity.' He has also written a letter to a friend in Washington in which he says he will not give a cent for the Greeley campaign.

Congressman Slater informs the Democratic paper at La Grande that he will stump the State for Greeley and Brown. Nobody objects. It doesn't make much difference whether he does it or not.

A great meeting of straight Democrats was held at St James Hotel, New York, last Saturday evening. It was announced that Charles O'Conor would accept the Louisville nomination.

OREGON

Ben Herrin, a resident of Union county, disappeared suddenly a few days ago. He left a young wife behind him.

Wheat buyers at Salem complain that the grain brought into market is damp and green. Millers have been compelled to refuse some parcels.

Indians don't want to give up Wallowa valley in Union county and threaten to burn white settlers out. No families have yet gone there.

Salem seems to be moving in earnest for a bridge across the Wallamet. The incorporators have gone before the Council asking the right of way from the west end of Court street.

The Statesman corrects its description of the Malheur Indian reservation, thus: The description of this new reservation given yesterday was erroneous. The following is correct: Beginning at the mouth of the north fork of the Malheur river thence up and including the waters thereof to Castle Rock thence northwest to Strawberry Butte, thence southwest to Soda Spring on Silvies river thence down said last named river to Malheur Lake thence east to the south fork of Malheur river, thence down said south fork and including the waters thereof to the place of beginning.

Work on the railroad in the vicinity of Roseburg is progressing finely. The Plaindealer says Contractor Richards's men are pegging away at the deep rock cutting half a mile from Roseburg, about the only piece of grading to be done to complete the road to this place. This and the North Umpqua bridge are likely to be finished about the same time say about six or seven weeks and then all will be ready for iron. The cut is over thirty feet deep in the solid rock and toward the bottom of the cut looks very black flinty and refractory but the thundering blasts that hourly make the welkin ring show that Richards is on it.

THE TERRITORIES

Fred Stine will erect a three story brick hotel at Walla Walla.

Large bands of cattle are being driven through Walla Walla en route for the Palouse country.

Some days ago three infantrymen and one cavalryman deserted from the garrison at Lapwai taking with them four Government horses. They have not yet been caught.

A Walla Walla paper says: It is understood that the local railroad company has disposed of its franchise to a party of capitalists who will at once put down a first class road.

Democrats of Washington Territory are preparing to hold their Convention to nominate a candidate for Congress. It is understood that Judge McFadden will be the almost unanimous choice of his party for delegate and some think he can beat Garfield in the race.

On Rock Creek near Walla Walla a few days ago Samuel Kelly shot and killed George Duke. The difficulty arose about some cattle. On Thursday last Duke went to Kelly's house when the latter met him with the inquiry, "You have come for my scalp!" and, instantly raising a double barrelled shotgun discharged it. Duke fell dead and on examination was found to be without arms—not having even a pen knife. The affair is looked upon as outright murder.

Wendell Phillips Writes a Letter

Letter writing is just now a leading amusement among prominent men. Blaine, Sumner, Dix, Jerry Black and a host more have declared themselves by letters, and now Wendell Phillips is to be added to the list. A New York dispatch of the 17th gives this:

In his letter to the colored citizens of Boston Wendell Phillips says Sumner is the dupe and unconscious tool of a conspiracy between Northern copperheads and Southern secessionists. After the war it was announced in the last extremity by the lips of Jeff. Davis that the cause was not lost and must be won by getting possession of the Government and leaving us in the opposition. Such is the present plot and Greeley suits it. Still it does not prevent his riding it. Sumner does not see it at this time. At such a moment the regular Republican party becomes a unit, the accepted and only instrument of resistance and Grant represents loyalty as Lincoln did in 1861. If Gen Grant is set aside who is offered us in his place? Greeley. I need not tell you my friends what Horace Greeley is. We abolitionists knew him only too well in the weary years of our struggle. He had enough of clear moral vision to see the justice of our course but never had courage enough to confess his faith. If events had never given him the courage he never would have had principle enough to risk anything for the idea. A trimmer by nature and purpose he has abused even the American politician's privilege of trading principles for success. But for lack of ability he would have been the chief time server of his age. I never knew till now any of his eulogists so heedless and undiscriminating as ever to claim that he was sincere.

CITY.

[illegible] COLVILLE —Mr Oppenheimer has the contract for the supplies of the Canadian Pacific Railway company returned to the city on Tuesday from Fort Colville. Mr Oppenheimer visited the point making the preliminary survey of the line of that railroad under the superintendence of W Moberly District Engineer of that portion of the contemplated road. The party started at a point on the Upper Columbia about 400 miles beyond Fort Colville, known as Howe's Pass. From thence the course is about 150 miles reaching from the upper waters, boats on Howe's Pass. The Columbia is navigable above Colville for a distance of 125 miles. The navigation for this distance is uninterrupted with the exception of where the river forces its way through a canyon with steep, high walls of stone. At that point the waters tumble over the rocky channel, forming a series of small cascades which are called Dead Man's Rapids owing to the fact that a number of men have been drowned at the place in attempting to navigate the stream at various times. The character of the rapids is not such as to prevent the passage of boats. The attempt is generally attended with more or less difficulty and danger depending in a great degree on the stage of the water. This part of the river is navigated by a little steamer called the Forty Nine. Between the old fort and the highest navigable point. Above this point the river is rough and navigation is obstructed at intervals. Supplies beyond steamer navigation are carried by means of small boats and pack animals, and there are now two hundred animals used in the transportation of the necessary supplies required by the various engineering and surveying parties, of whom we believe, there are five and the total force of men employed number several hundred. The surveying corps are engaged in making preliminary surveys for the most feasible and practicable route, and are consequently scattered over a wide extent of country. Under such circumstances it is a difficult matter to reach the different parties with provisions —Fort Colville being one of the principal bases of supplies. On reaching Howe's Pass Mr Moberley and his party struck out toward the Rocky mountains, running for several hundred miles, running and examining the character of the country through which the party passed. The country over which the surveying party traveled, beyond "Howe's Pass," is described by Mr Oppenheimer as very fine. In many portions, the country is rugged and broken, but there are many portions where the landscape is diversified and places where small hills and [illegible] are frequently found clothed in a most luxuriant covering of the nutritious bunch grass. [illegible] grazing country can be found on the coast. Large numbers of cattle were herded last year in this region, and never lost flesh during the most severe portion of the winter. In the country along many of the water courses, unmistakable indications of mineral wealth were discovered but the party were unable to prospect for want of time. This portion of the country is sparsely populated with wandering tribes of Indians and a very few whites, traders, trappers and herders.

Mr Oppenheimer was absent from the city about three months and a half. During this time he was over 1100 miles away, and probably traveled over 2,500 miles in the aggregate. He crossed a portion of the Rocky Mountains, and with his party ascended to the source of the "Columbia, which is a small lake fed by mountain springs. At the point where the Columbia bids adieu to the lake, it is but [illegible] in width and is not more than knee deep. Mr Oppenheimer and, we venture, what no other man in the State has done. He waded across [illegible]

When Mr Oppenheimer left Moberly to return it was on the 17th of July. In the course of a few weeks from that time he expected to cross the summit of the Rocky Mountains and meet [illegible] Engineer of the railway from the Canadian Government. [illegible] what was known as the [illegible] Chief Engineer [illegible] preliminary surveys from some initial point [illegible] to the eastern side of the Rocky Mountains and the meeting will terminate the [illegible] lines. The two engineers will compare and probably determine the most [illegible] route. The work is progressing and as rapidly as could well be [illegible] existing obstacles which beset such an undertaking —the nature of the country, the distance from settled regions, and the difficulty of obtaining supplies. From the time the party left on the Eureka river, Mr Oppenheimer [illegible] the entire distance to this city in about [illegible] Most of the distance from the Big Bend to Howe's Pass he traveled alone on horseback, no one, either whites or Indians, offered to molest him, and nothing of special interest [illegible] except the rather remarkable [illegible] storm on the 29th of July.

SCOTCH LASSIES.—We were favored with a call from Mr J. M Melville, of [illegible] Forwarding Commission and Insurance [illegible] Dundee Scotland. Mr. Melville is [illegible] the old world. He comes here with [illegible] visiting all sections of Oregon, to see [illegible] and acquaint himself with the [illegible] the people. He has sent out at different times a number of Scotch servant girls to this [illegible] through the efforts mainly of Mr O[illegible] have all secured good paying situations [illegible] both in Portland and elsewhere. [illegible] first visit to Oregon, he has brought [illegible] girls. Laboring prudently thought it [illegible] to this State and prospect its wants [illegible] before embarking very extensively in [illegible] a ton of female hired help. Next year [illegible] to send out over 200 girls from Scotland [illegible] ding he deems the demand will justify [illegible] Mr Melville will remain here a [illegible] during which time he proposes to travel [illegible] one of eastern Oregon, and up through [illegible] valley. As it is desirable he [illegible] away with him the best possible [illegible] the people and a good amount of [illegible] every courtesy, accommodation and [illegible] to be extended to him. We learn that [illegible] have been tendered him over both the [illegible] railroad lines, and no efforts will be [illegible] number of our prominent citizens, [illegible] Melville to obtain all the desirable in[illegible] may wish respecting the characteristic [illegible] boundless resources of our young [illegible] few days Mr Melville will remain at [illegible] Hotel. During that time any [illegible] consult him in regard to orders for any [illegible] hired help—either male or female [illegible] the immigration business he is [illegible] any wish [illegible] supply either a large [illegible] mand.

THE MAIL ROBBERY

TRIAL OF TOMPKINS FRANCIS HANSON AND WHITE IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT —[illegible]

THIRD DAY'S [illegible]

The Court convened at 10 o clock A M H Moppin a witness for the [illegible] on the stand at the last adjournment of the Court now resumed and the [illegible] being present by counsel and defendants in person has been [illegible] Moppin to be [illegible] cross-examined by the counsel and proved by [illegible] Underwood and proceeded at the request of counsel to point out the places on the [illegible] map Witness being interrogated by plaintiff counsel continued The distance from my house to Tompkins by the road is about [illegible] I learned from Hanson after his arrest that the defendants Hanson and White had been living at Tompkins before the robbery When I [illegible] yesterday that Bramlette [illegible] told me [illegible] Tompkins and [illegible] Bramlette and White to the ranch I inferred that Bramlette meant Tompkins house He then told me the night before the June election that he was camped about [illegible] miles on the creek above Tompkins getting out timbers Attleberry asked Bramlette how long the robbery had been in contemplation and he said Tompkins had narrated it to him about a month ago I was informed on the day of Bramlette's arrest that Tompkins was at Coleman's that day at dinner I asked Bramlette if he knew how long Tompkins had been gone He said he did not that he and Tompkins didn't have much talk He also said that he didn't know where Tompkins would stay that night When I started to arrest Tompkins I was getting my arms and Bramlette told me to be careful of Cusicks that he was a dangerous man and told me to leave a gun at the house so that my son could defend him Bramlette if Tompkins should come for he was afraid Tompkins would murder him

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF [illegible]

I have been acquainted with Frank Tompkins for six years I first knew him when he lived on Tygh Valley When he lived on Cherry creek his place was about 24 miles from mine He now lives about 20 or 21 miles from my place My feelings toward him at present are not friendly and have not been since Jack Mount was murdered at his place I never had any serious difficulty with him though he seriously hurt me four years ago but I supposed it was accidental It was at an election I was never sued by French & Co, or by French & Gilman They had a note against me and pressed its payment for which I blamed Tompkins Tompkins was not my security on that note with my knowledge or consent I never said at the Dalles that I would send him to hell if I got a chance I did say did not intimate that he wanted me to go and hunt for the tracks From Cusicks's where Bramlette was arrested to the place of the robbery is about sixteen miles When Bramlette was arrested, Attleberry, Cantrell my son and others were present Some of the men present were branding cattle There were but two guns in my party I had one and Cantrell one I told Bramlette to throw up his arms at the same time drawing my revolver He asked me what he was arrested for I had the hand cuffs put on him, and told him "for robbing the stage" He said he was innocent I told him "talk was cheap" When I sent Cantrell and my son home I told Bramlette to come with me Attleberry went with me, and we went some three fourths of a mile from the point of separation I sent Cantrell and my son home because I did not want my son to hear what I said to Bramlette We had ropes with us After going up the creek we went up the side of the mountain some three or four hundred yards from the creek to a sort of a bench on the side of the mountain The ground was level There was a juniper tree near by I got down off my horse and told him Tompkins kept a set of men around him that you could not touch with the law That they were a heavy tax on the people of the country every term of the Circuit Court, and that we were going to put a stop to it that I was going to hang them as fast as I could catch them I perhaps had my Henry gun in my hand at the time I told him that I was satisfied that he was guilty, and that I was going to execute the law I told him about finding the pistol and that we had evidences enough to convict him He said he was innocent (Witness then went on to relate substantially the facts as detailed in his direct testimony concerning extortion of the confession)—and continues We then went on to my house and stayed an hour and a half or 2 hours and I left Bramlette there in charge of my son and we went to Grater's to arrest Tompkins It was on Friday, one week after the robbery We reached there at 9 o'clock in the forenoon and found no one at Grater's Cusicks came after a little while and Tompkins afterwards Grater's house is a log cabin of 1 room, near Trout creek There were with me Attleberry Cantrell, Quinn Hale and Porter—six altogether We had hitched our horses out of sight about 100 yards from the house There were three guns in the company I didn't see Tompkins come to the house When I first saw him he was tying his horse to a wagon All the company were around Attleberry was perhaps, nearest Tompkins When we started in the morning, we had with us about 1½ pints of liquor The first I heard was Attleberry pointed his Henry gun at him and told him to throw up his hands I had a Remington's six shooter and Quinn had a gun After the handcuffs were on I told him it was for robbing the stage He said I am clear of that charge and can prove myself clear by Hanson and White and my wife I told him Hanson and White would not be competent witnesses that I did not think he could use them as witnesses that I was going to arrest them before the sun set Tompkins said If that is all it don't amount to much and seemed to make light of the charge He didn't say that he would bet a hundred head of cattle that Bramlette had never made such a confession or that if he did he was a liar or was scared into it Tompkins did say that any man who accused him or intimated that he robbed the stage was a G—d d—d stinking, lying, thieving son of a b—h I said to him Mr Tompkins you are a prisoner and ironed and I am bound to protect you, but I am not afraid of you only when you are behind my back He said Mr Moppins I don't have reference to you I don't suppose you are afraid of anybody I said I am not when I have the law on my side Cantrell had taken Tompkins' pistols—a six shooter from the canteenas on his saddle and a derringer from his pocket He said the six shooter was the only one he had had for years He told me he had always treated me well and I told him that he had played me a mean trick in the matter with French French never refused to trust me for goods for I was always good for my contracts my property made me good Tompkins asked permission to go home I refused He also asked permission to go down a short distance into the woods and untie a cow This I refused but told him some of the boys could go down and untie her It was not my intention to allow him to talk with anybody but my own party while he was under my charge When I went to Tompkins to arrest Hanson and White I did not want to go into the house but I [illegible] went in I did not tell Mrs Tompkins that Tompkins was arrested I never said in the presence of Cusicks Tompkins is my enemy and [illegible] he can against me I never [illegible] to M[illegible] in the presence of Mr Cusicks [illegible] I took [illegible] I had to get [illegible] had accused me of robbing the [illegible] just get clear of it myself [illegible] Hanson [illegible] which he did [illegible] thing he could do would be to [illegible] matter—that he knew where the money was and that he had better go and get it and give it back to the owner that by so doing he would gain more friends than he would lose I told him that [illegible] Here the [illegible] for the defense asked the question What did Hanson tell you as to where the defendants were on the day of the robbery and the night following. Counsel for the plaintiff objected After argument the objection was sustained by the Court Here the Court took a recess until half past 1 o clock P M

AFTERNOON [illegible]

H Moppin's testimony continued—I never said to Tompkins Did I wound [illegible] your pistol and has shown [illegible] nothing about Vigilance I didn't [illegible] Vigilance named I was not at Mr Tompkins when the boots were found [illegible] the horse [illegible] day I had seen the horse [illegible] made [illegible] he confession [illegible] what time I was [illegible] and White to keep up stairs [illegible] the lower door They had a conversation to my knowledge I am acquainted [illegible] Lehman but did not know his first name [illegible] that his horses [illegible] were the tracks we found on the [illegible] near the robbery we were the track we had been following I did not say to Ad Edgar at my house that we had hunted Tompkins's house high and low for the boots, and that I believed old Grater had been there and made way with them I did not present a pistol to Bramlette when the confession was made I did not know whether Frank Tompkins' bay mare has a white stripe in her face or not

D A Rowland —This witness said there was a pistol found at the spring named by the witness Moppin and that I [illegible] one he saw in possession of Frank Tompkins as [illegible] but a [illegible] belong the same [illegible] his testimony [illegible] all clear

I h A [illegible] Valley [illegible] with robbery on [illegible] Cunningham a Billy Cant [illegible] Monday we went [illegible] down [illegible] to [illegible] rack [illegible] have seen the [illegible] Hanson had [illegible] the witness [illegible] On Tuesday [illegible] where he [illegible] my house [illegible] to trade [illegible] if Mr [illegible] had they [illegible] one of the horse tracks we took at [illegible] saw the [illegible] There were [illegible] lots [illegible] Monday [illegible] I was present at the arrest of [illegible] was Moppin [illegible] Cantrell and C [illegible] some statements were made by Bramlette after his arrest This witness gave the same facts concerning the extortion of the [illegible] and [illegible] as detailed in Moppin's evidence with some variations as to the precise language used [illegible] never heard Moppin say anything at the time of the confession about giving Bramlette money to leave the country and go to his people The morning when they started below to the Dalles he again spoke to me about the boots after he took back the confession I told him there was no use of his taking back what he had said that he had told me all about the boots and that I was going to get them Mr Moppin said [illegible] The boys say you have lied on them He said Yes I did lie to you Mr Moppin [illegible] description of the road was the same we had traced on I was present at the arrest of Tompkins with [naming eight persons] As we were going to Grater's to arrest Tompkins we met Mr Hale who told us that Grater and Tompkins were out hunting a cow Hale went back with us [illegible] we waited there until Tompkins and [illegible] came This witness gave nearly the same account of the arrest of Tompkins as detailed by the witness Moppin

Cross [illegible] —The only new facts drawn out on cross examination of this witness are as follows The reason we sent Moppin's son and Cantrell on home was because we wanted to get a confession out of Bramlette Moppin told Bramlette what he was arrested for He plead innocent When we separated we went up the creek We did stop near a large juniper tree Moppin got off his horse and told Bramlette to get off and said to him "You have evaded the law you have sworn falsely for Tompkins more than once We are going to break it up" that he was going to hang them as fast as he could catch them that he had one proposal to make I don't know that Moppin had anything in his hands Bramlette said to me Don't hang me Attleberry I had a rope in my hand I untied it from my saddle because we wanted to scare him into a confession I spoke to Tompkins at the time of his arrest and told him to put up his hands I did not tell the Grand Jury that Bramlette's confession was voluntary I may not have told them that he was threatened but I did tell them he was scared

Finding the cross-examination of this witness a note was sent to one of the jurors of rising him of the illness of his child and by consent the juror was allowed to go and see his child and the Court adjourned until 10 A M Thursday

AMUSEMENTS

Remember the matinee performance this afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Crystal Palace Circus at the corner of Fifth and Morrison streets

The Crystal Palace Circus gave the second exhibition at the Pavilion last evening to a crowded house The performance was very satisfactory

The Turn Verein Society will hold their first anniversary celebration at the Canyon Garden next Sunday The 1st Infantry Band will be in attendance

[illegible] —The Wallamet Bridge Company [illegible] to-day in the County Clerk's office

The corporation is to be known as the Portland Bridge Company and its duration is perpetual

The names of the incorporators are R H Leonard Walter M Fott A P Dennison P J Martin Eugene Semple W W Page John Coggswell W K Smith and J C Hawthorne

The corporation is formed and proposes to make construct own hold use and maintain a bridge across the Wallamet river between Portland and East Portland at such a point as shall be designated by the corporation

The corporation will hold its principal office and place of business in this city

The amount of the capital stock of the corporation will be $400 000 and the amount of each share to be $100 and the number of shares 4 000 The incorporators have already subscribed $20 000 of the stock The remaining portion of the capital stock will doubtless be subscribed long before the bridge has been completed as the work progresses

A First Class Record —We copy the following tribute to a Portland corporation from the Walla Walla [illegible] During the twelve years that the Oregon Steam Navigation Company has controlled the navigation of the Columbia river not a single passenger has suffered the loss of either life or limb on the boats or cars owned by the company This is a record to be proud of and having during that time transported thousands of passengers it shows a degree of care and attention that can scarcely be paralleled This immunity from accidents is due to the fact that the company have always had their boats and cars constructed in the very best manner and in the selection of their officers have taken especial pains to secure the services of careful and competent men In this regard the Oregon Steam Navigation Company has set an example that may well be commended to other companies engaged in the business of transporting freight and passengers

Extensive Runaway —An extensive runaway occurred up Front street last evening about 5 o clock A team of large powerful horses took fright at the corner of Main and Front streets and came tearing down They took the sidewalk at the corner of Yamhill and Front and ran down past the St Charles Hotel The team was attached to a heavy lumber wagon and considerable damage resulted to awning posts and merchandise left on the sidewalks A large cooking stove stood in the way and was smashed to pieces At the corner of Morrison and Front the team became detached from the wagon and ran up to Second street where they were caught

Combined Bell and Door Plate —Slack's combined door plate bell and alarm can be seen at McCormick's book store The invention is superior in many respects to the old style of bells in use It combines the advantages of safety cheapness and neatness The bell is rung either by lifting a hinge like a door plate or by simply turning the door knob No one can enter the door without first communicating with the alarm whether the door is locked or not even if the lock be picked

Surprise and Sociable —Quite a large number of the friends and members of the congregation of Rev Mr Izer's church gathered at the Taylor street Church last night in the character of a sociable and surprise party Many greetings to the pastor and a general social good time was had

Enterprising —The evening contemporary tells its readers about the discovery of iron ore near [illegible] full account of which appeared in this paper nearly two months ago This is about in keeping with the usual enterprise that [illegible]

Circus Matinee —A circus matinee will be given this afternoon at [illegible] o clock [illegible] will be offered

Hobbs and his Hobby

[From Hearth and Home]

I once told you about my friend Hobbs but as the preachers say suffer a word about Hobbs I have suffered much from him Hobbs and his dieting and care for his health is nothing to Hobbs on his hobby

Hobbs s hobby is early rising

We believe in early rising at our house and wishing to be healthy wealthy and wise we get up every morning punctually at half past eight unless it rains When it rains we lie in bed till half past nine because the less one sees of a rainy day the better I would not get up at all when it rains if it were not for the necessity of having three meals a day

Hobbs gets up at five o clock in clear and at four o clock in cloudy weather He says you must get up earlier in cloudy weather in order to get the mean amount of light needed every day for the health of the body I told him that I thought it must be a mean amount of light that he got at four o clock in the morning I think he gets up at three in winter, so as to get fairly warmed up by four It must be for that reason Or it may be that he gets up at three in order to get a mean amount of darkness The days being short Hobbs lengthens them by rising betimes or rather before times

Hobbs rides his hobby

Hobbs wants everybody else to ride

I have always noticed that when a man has one poor little mean scrub of a hobby he always wants to make it carry all mankind He wants to put all the world on the croop Hobbs gets up early therefore I must get up early, therefore you therefore Brown Jones Robinson and the rest must get up early Hobbs is like an evil conscience the enemy of sleep If I stay at his house he will on some pretext order breakfast half an hour earlier than usual then he will get up and ring the rising bell himself, to be sure that it is done thoroughly namely in every hall on every stairway, with a short pause before the door of each sleeper For myself, I scarcely sleep at all when I have occasion to spend the night under the roof tree of my friend Hobbs. I have so keen a consciousness that I am to be waked up, such a feeling of [illegible] to condense my sleep into the few hours allowed me, such a sense of the total moral wickedness of any comfortable sleep from [illegible]'s standpoint, that I cannot sleep. If I do [illegible] to catch a cat-nap, the ghost of the [illegible] bell rings in my dreams and im[illegible] me with the fearful responsibility I [illegible] in sleeping at all Generally I get about [illegible] out by morning and in that des[illegible] in which I don t care for rising [illegible] or anything else I sink exhausted into a [illegible] slumber, which may last an hour, but [illegible] is so totally unconscious that there [illegible] to be no time between the moment of getting to sleep and the coming of that wicked, high keyed, torturing, demoniacal frantic rising bell that wanders in a will-o the wisp fashion through the hall and stairways and stops at the last right afront my door and [illegible] a vixenish, personal, insulting tone as it attacks the first comfortable sleep I have had, and arouses me to the necessity for early rising

The worst thing about the old friendship existing between our family and the Hobbses is that every visit I pay to Hobbs is returned in kind He never sits an evening out He begins to yawn immediately after supper and —ah!—that to get up early one only wants to go to bed early Then he quotes "the dumb brutes as examples" and I suppose if Darwinism is ever established, we shall have him talking about returning to the good old ways of the days when our ancestors lived in the tree-tops! We must get up early because the birds do, says Hobbs Why not scratch a [illegible] deal, then, because monkeys do? It must be healthy else nature would not have inspired these simple hearted children of the f[illegible] with the desire. Let us introduce again the "[illegible]-scratches" which ladies carried with their fans a few hundred years ago

But all reason and all badinage are lost on Hobbs. He only smiles in a sort of sublime su[illegible] What time do we have breakfast? he asked with a look at his watch, and his watch is his familiar spirit His inspiring muse is a watch his chasing fury is a rising bell We state our breakfast time half an hour earlier than usual, because we are ashamed to state it truthfully and we mean to get up earlier to-morrow He smiles with an irresistible sense of the ridiculousness of anybody lying in bed so late Hopes we won't hurry on his account though he says it with the look of a martyr He says he wonders that we are not all dead (We would be if he were a regular boarder)

In the morning he is up early in order to get the m[illegible] amount of light needed He is tramping up and down the hall in front of my door I have a sense of duty in the matter, and feel that I must get up For Hobbs is [illegible] king as much noise as possible in the be[illegible] He goes up and down stairs like a [illegible] evil spirit, only there is no evil spirit that ever had so much "squeaking leather" in his boots He unbolts the front door and goes out, and then comes back and slams it. Of course I get up and am greeted with 'Up at last eh and a pitying smile from this superior being, who prides himself on having maintained the primitive habits of his monkey ancestors

But there must be an end of all things and Hobbs leaves Then I get frantic with delight and ordered breakfast delayed an hour next morning And next morning I kept waking up from my cozy, half conscious simm[illegible], the topping off of the night best of all, "[illegible] you know you are getting it" as I heard a lady say—I keep waking out of this slumber and chuckling to myself that 'Hobbs is gone' and fall off again and again into the paradise of unlimited repose Then I get up with my nerves all smoothed and placed, and do more work in an hour than [illegible] can do in a day, giving him four morning hours the start

Bishop Whitehouse has been blamed for many things, but there is current in Illinois a saying of his that should be immortal He says that people should not rise until the world has had a good airing Hobbs talks about the glory of a sunrise and I am very [illegible] to the scene because it is so rare With Hobbs a sunrise must be a very vulgar every day affair

And what is that golden sentence of Beecher s, that all great workers are great resters?

Is Hobbs healthy, wealthy and wise? No I think not. He has a weakness in his chest, and he falls asleep in his chair and he is not rich, and as for wisdom he has not sense enough to be abed when he gets there He does not know when he is well off His first wife died of rising bells and the second one is [illegible] All from getting the mean quantity of light

THE LEISURELY SAUNTERER

P S.—I forgot to say that Hobbs like all other early risers, takes a nap in the middle of the day I think he only gets up to torment other people

Interior merchants are rapidly finding out what advantages Portland [illegible] as a center of trade In all leading lines of [illegible] large and full stocks are kept It would astonish those who have not recently visited Portland to see now what stocks our leading houses carry Some idea, too of the growth of the country may be obtained from a comparison of the present volume of business with that transacted a few years ago Portland is rapidly gaining prominence as a commercial center The time was when country merchants might justly complain of not being able to buy to advantage in all cases here but that time is no more Our merchants are actuated by a purpose to keep their business fully abreast of the wants of trade. In this respect they are moved with an intelligent enterprise which comprehends the wants of the country and makes preparations to meet them Country dealers can rely on finding in this market full lines of goods at prices as low as the times will warrant anywhere So our merchants are ambitious to obtain and hold the trade and to meet the wants of all customers In Dry Goods, Hardware, Boots and Shoes Groceries, and in fact in all the principal lines our merchants carry large stocks and are filling up for the Fall and Winter trade Interior dealers and country merchants have only to visit our [illegible] houses to assure themselves of these facts.

The San Francisco Commercial Herald says

There is a strong desire shown by several of our commercial banks to adopt the gold note system as it has become exceedingly popular, by reason of the ease with which it can be [illegible], and the facility with which large sums can be packed in small bulk. The Pacific Bank Directors have called a meeting of stockholders to consider the expediency of reducing its capital to one million dollars United States gold coin probably with a view of making a change to gold note currency As no bank is permitted to issue over one million in these notes our larger institutions are barred out but the others are rapidly falling into line

Election Tuesday Nov 5 1872

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

[illegible]

[illegible] the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured the amendments

4 The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations protecting its citizens everywhere and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty

5 Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fatally demoralizing and we therefore favor a reform of the system by a law which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position without practically creating a lifetenure of office

6 We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people

[7] The annual revenue after paying current debts should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt and except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors be raised by duties on importations which should be adjusted to aid in securing remunerative wages to laborers and to promote the industries and growth and prosperity of the whole country

8 We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged and who in the line of duty became disabled without regard to the length of service or the cause of such discharge

9 The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance—once a subject always a subject having at last through the efforts of the Republican party been abandoned and the American idea of the right of an individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Governments and we urge a continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration

10 The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way proposed for reduction in the rates of postage

11 Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital, and for labor which creates capital the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization

12 We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation

13 We denounce the repudiation of public debts in any form or disguise as a national crime We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment

14 The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration

15 We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land

16 The Republican party proposes to respect all rights reserved by the people to themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments It disapproves of resorting to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government

17 It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building

18 We believe that the modest patriotism the earnest purpose sound judgment practical wisdom incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U S Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory

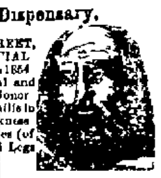
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES!

Dr Gibbon s Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhœa Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe and has resumed practice at his Dispensary 623 Kearney street corner of Commercial San Francisco where his patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking new remedies and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation then sands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies see that they are carefully and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in a registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co. a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn-to certificates dupe the unwary one of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy too work at their trades Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers, etc The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
